The purpose of this memorandum is to notify staff that, effective immediately, Unified Children's Home – I (UCH) has been removed from voluntary intake suspension and may resume intake of new residents. UCH – I was placed on voluntary intake suspension on January 13, 2006, due to an electrical fire leaving it uninhabitable. However, since that time, UCH has undergone extensive renovations, meets fire and safety standards and may now accept referrals. UCH – I can accept up to eleven (11) males, ages ten (10) to twenty-one (21) years.

This memorandum further notifies staff that, with the re-opening of UCH – I operating site, UCH – II will be changing the gender accepted for placement from males to females. The maximum capacity at UCH-II remains at nine (9) females, ages ten (10) to twenty-one (21) years. The UCH contact person is Oscar McKinley, Executive Director, 816-756-1303.

Please contact Fred Proebsting, State Supervisor, Residential Program Unit, at 573-751-4954 if you have any questions or comments regarding this matter.
