MEMORANDUM

TO: REGIONAL EXECUTIVE STAFF, CIRCUIT MANAGERS, AND CHILDREN’S DIVISION STAFF

FROM: CANDACE A. SHIVELY, DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: THE IMPORTANCE OF FATHER ENGAGEMENT

DISCUSSION:

The purpose of this memorandum is to remind workers of the importance of Father Engagement, and to notify staff of minor modifications to the Child Welfare Manual (CWM) that emphasize the involvement of both parents when working with a family.

Children who live absent their biological fathers are, on average, at least two to three times more likely to be poor, to use drugs, to experience educational, health, emotional and behavioral problems, to be victims of child abuse, and to engage in criminal behavior than their peers who live with their married, biological (or adoptive) parents (2010 National Fatherhood Initiative.)

The added language supports the importance of involving the non-resident or non-custodial parent in case planning and services, including a Child Abuse and Neglect Investigation and/or Assessment or a Family-Centered Services (FCS) case, as discussed in CD10-53.

Responsibilities of staff when engaging fathers:

- Encourage custodial parents to be cooperative when it comes to involving the non-resident or non-custodial parent as appropriate in preserving the safety and best interest of their children;
- Encourage mothers to identify fathers early in the case;
- Complete a diligent search process as outlined in Section 4 Chapter 4 Attachment A, of the CWM;
- Maintain regular contact with all team members including the custodial, incarcerated, non-resident or non-custodial parent according to the case plan, informing them of significant changes in status of the case;
- Ensure that the child has planned regular contact with his/her father. Fathers need to see their children on a regular basis. At times the presence of one or more family members can make a difference in visitation because they can share the child with the father, bring more excitement and energy to the visit, as well as point out family resemblances to him;

- Provide services directed to removal or reduction of any barriers to visitation;

- Assist in the connection of fathers and their children;

- Offer support or coaching before or during visits. This can be done by the worker or a parent aide and is especially important to those fathers who are incarcerated;

- Encourage incarcerated fathers to participate in services such as: Inside-Out Dads, Parents As Teachers, Story Link, Building Strong Relationships, or Parent Link;

- Fathers are to be encouraged to write letters, send pictures, cards, make phone calls and give the worker details of how to visit them if appropriate;

- Staff should be in close communication with the Institutional Activity Coordinator or the incarcerated father’s case manager at the facility. Refer to Section 4 Chapter 7 Attachment B, for more information;

- Staff should utilize the CS-2A, Incarcerated Parent’s Child Status Report.
