Renewal of Coverage in future years

To make it easier to determine my eligibility for help paying for health coverage for future years, I agree to allow the Family Support Division to use income data, including information from tax returns. The Family Support Division will send me a notice, let me make any changes, and I can opt out at any time.

Yes, use my tax returns to renew my eligibility automatically for the next:

Tell us about all the family members who live with you. The amount of assistance or type of program you qualify for depends on the number of people in your family and their incomes. This information helps us make sure everyone gets the best coverage they can.

You don't need to file taxes to get health coverage.

For adults who need coverage:
Include these people even if they aren't applying for health coverage for themselves:
• Any spouse they live with
• Any child under age 21 they live with, including stepchildren

We will keep all the information you provide private and secure as required by law. We will use personal information only to check if you are eligible for health coverage. You do not need to provide immigration status or a Social Security Number (SSN) for family members who do not need health coverage.
