SUBJECT: INCREASE IN CHILD CARE INCOME ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES
FPL 2021

DISCUSSION:

Effective July 1, 2021 Child Care Subsidy income guidelines increased based on the Federal Poverty guidelines issued by the Federal Government. Maximum income limits have increased for households receiving Child Care Subsidy.

Income guidelines for initial Child Care Subsidy applications will continue to be determined using income up to 150% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL). Transitional Child Care A (TCCA) income guidelines will change to 151% to 185% of the FPL, Transitional Child Care B (TCCB) income guidelines will change to 186% to 215% of the FPL.

The Traditional Child Care Eligibility Income Guidelines and Sliding Fee Chart and the Transitional Child Care Sliding Fee Charts have been updated to reflect the new income guidelines. System changes are completed in FAMIS and will use the new income guidelines for applications taken for July 2021 services. You can find the income guidelines at <https://dssmanuals.mo.gov/wp-content/uploads/2021/05/fpl-income-guidelines.pdf>.
